Welcome to Miyama

The region of Miyama lies just 50 kilometres north of Kyoto City; surrounded on all sides by mountains. Miyama is a pristine wilderness where the traditional country lifestyle of “Satoyama” still flourishes. The word of Satoyama 里山-meaning village in the mountains-embodies the ancient Japanese art of living in harmony with nature, using the natural resources around you whilst taking care to manage and preserve them.

While the area is located near the central Kyoto, nostalgic scenes of Japan’s rural districts still remain vibrant in Miyama where life is interwoven with abundant life.

The village offers a window onto the real Japan of the past.

Best
Tourism
Village

Miyama has been recognized for encouraging environmentally conscious living through safeguarding its heritage, including practices such as traditional agriculture. In addition, the town is internationally noted for its sustainability initiatives. In 2021, Miyama was named one of the world’s Best Tourism Villages by the United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) in recognition of the efforts to promote sustainable tourism that preserves culture, traditions, and biodiversity while empowering its residents.
